

Glendale Local History Society 2018–19 programme

Talks are held on the second Wednesday of the month at 7.30 at the Cheviot Centre, Padgepool Place, Wooler, NE71 6BL. Tea/coffee & biscuits served at 7.00; talks finish by 9.00.
Membership fee for the season £8. Visitors are welcome to all talks and events (£3 per person).

2018

12th September

Northumberland's Geology & How it Shaped History – Dr Ian Kille
The influence of geology on landscape in Northumberland

Saturday 22nd September: Field Trip 10.00 –1.00, guided by Dr Ian Kille

We'll travel with shared cars having stops en route to explore Glendale, including the geology which affected the outcome of the Battle of Flodden, and the glacial plain of Milfield and Dodlaw with spectacular views of the Cheviots' geology.

10th October

Revealing the Secrets of Northumberland's Place Names – Jonathan West
The origins of place names in North Northumberland & the Cheviots

Saturday 3rd November: special event commemorating the end of World War I.

Life on The Home Front in WW1 – Anthea Lang

11.30 at St Mary's church, Wooler. Tickets including a light lunch £5 for GLHS members

14th November

Trench Art of the North East: material, culture, memory & perception from WWI – Andrew Marriot
This illustrated talk includes artefacts

12th December

(tbc) John Black's diary 1863: the story of a local enterprising family – David Lockie
A fascinating history from Glendale

2019

9th January

Deserted Mediaeval Villages, our locality's forgotten past – Allan Colman

13th February

The Families of Wallington Hall – the Fenwicks via the Blacketts to the Trevelyan's – Elizabeth Finch

13th March

The Northern Pre-Raphaelite: William Bell-Scott and his art – Michael Thomson

10th April

The King's Shilling – Old English folk musicians Alan & Pauline Giles & Pete Cryer

A musical interpretation of recruitment into the Red Coat Army with special reference to the North East

Followed by a short AGM

For more information see www.wooler.org.uk/glhs